"Independent, But Not Necessarily Neutral, in the Public Service"

Our Role . . .

The weekly newspaper usually mirrors the community it serves, whether it be made up of several towns and villages, or whether it serves only one. It is, indeed, the showcase of the community which means the newspaper can make the outside world can gain an understanding of the flavor, the quality of life, the pulse of the towns and regions which it represents.

The weekly carries an open forum section, allowing everyone who has something to say to stand up, as it were, and express his opinion. The editorials, while generally not reaching heights of indignation or literary works to speak frankly on matters that merit community thought.

Part of our job is to serve people of the district through our "Letters to the Editor" column. Printing of these letters often brings criticism and representations in the outside world, it is the duty of a newspaper to print opinions expressed by readers. A general policy on such letters is — they must be of general interest and contain no libel.

A recent editorial from The Revelote (B.C.) Review in its opinion, The editorials, while generally not reaching heights

"Those Letters" . . .

"When Letters to the Editor make a lot of comment, one expression frequently heard is 'Oh well, the newspaper likes to stir up trouble. It helps to sell papers.'"

One's very knowledgeable outsider tried to figure out the other how much money a newspaper can make on the sale of papers during a "letter to the editor" controversy. The amount was fabulous.

Of course, the assumption was quite ridiculous.

The Review, for instance, prints approximately 3000 copies each week. Of this number, about 2500 are circulated in this area. This provides pretty well saturated coverage. There are no additional sales.

There may be a heavy of 100 or even 200 copies, the odd week. If 150 were sold over and above the normal number, this means a gross revenue of $22.50. But as most of these would be sold through dealers, the net to us would be considerably less than $22.50.

Letters to the editor are published as a service to readers. All newspaper have such a column. They are not restricted to any segment of the community, though some people think it is below their dignity to write such letters. In England, on the other hand, even prime ministers, cabinet members, members of the judiciary, peers and baronets feel constrained to write to the editor. The editorials, while generally not reaching heights of indignation or literary works to speak frankly on matters that merit community thought.

Much Ado About Nothing

When Prime Minister Trudeau's speech to the House of Commons in a Montreal session, from a list of 100 questions, was interrupted by a heckler, it was not a new experience. It was a repeat of the same old story.

During the two-week examination period, they must pass a written test in English or French and preclinical and clinical exams. The exams are not expected to be a snap, and any dentist who fails any one of the three major sections will not be permitted to progress to the next level.

In addition there is a fee of $800 for each candidate and should he fail the written exam, he will be required to pay $500. Those successful candidates will be able to practise anywhere in Canada without further study or examination by provincial boards.

For those who fail, it might be recommended that they take the exam of "apprenticeship" to many hard-pressed dentists in the more remote of rural Canada.

we're realists

NO DEPOSIT TO RETURN

We don't go along with the "no deposit" return way of working. No when it comes to money.

We know it takes money to make money.

There are several kinds of money.

The money you earn. It makes sense to demand a good return on it.

The money you spend. The less you pay for service charges, credit charges, interest—the more you have left to spend.

The money you keep. Realistically invested, it will make money for you.

The money you borrow. A Treasury Branch loan is economical. It takes more than money to make money. It takes thoughtful, solid planning and experienced management.

Money doesn't look after itself. It needs professional care.

Talk to your Treasury Branch Manager, about the best care for your money. We're a realist.

Alberta Women's Week of Craft Workshops

The craft workshops held on morning during Alberta Women's Week of the Agriculture and Vocational College at Okotoks August 2 to 6 have a lot to offer women seeking to broaden their creative horizons.

Major areas of concern at the workshops will be craft, weaving, block printing, and the use of dye. Women in attendance can spend much morning learning about the different craft or concentrate on one area. There will be an industry tour at each subject, where they will see the latest demonstrations. Each woman will try her hand at handweaving, dyeing or perhaps wheel throwing.

The craft programme headlined by the city of Victoria has been a success. It can try primitive hand weaving and dyeing later to operate a large loom. The day and evening sessions are open to all participants who will be able to experience with the latest ideas. The emphasis is on creativity: the art, understanding and involvement.

The workshops should develop an appreciation for good arts and crafts and stimulate the participants to do home and garden what she has learned.

For the weekend, a program of appreciation form, write principal, Gide Agricultural and Vocational College, Okotoks, Alberta.

The evening of Wednesday, July 5, was the Sunday night meeting at the home of Mrs. Patricia Keith with Mrs. Maria Kella co-hosts. Twenty members and nine guest were present. A continuous program had been held June 11 at Burns and Burns company. It was fairly well attended and every much enjoyed by the guests. After one roundy lunch was served for a short time and Mrs. Kella's children and adults began to play football. After a lively game, races and contests were held for everyone — a piggyback race, three-legged race, relay, crab race and more. The very young tag-along in which everyone took part, filling a 20 ft. rope and giving it a good stretch. We then had lunch and ended the most enjoyable afternoon.

The report on the above picnic was read and the bills for food purchases presented.

A booth will be held at the American Stampede to be held in Hardisty, July 13. This was completely planned.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mary Hays, at 1:30 pm. August 4. Mrs. Marian Egan and •financial "eggs" will not all be in one basket.

Alberta's way to better living

Be flexible in commercial transactions.

Alberta was the first province to set up a corporation of this kind. Basically, AOC makes low interest loans available to eligible manufacturing concerns wishing to expand or locate throughout the province.

Be incentives found.

Alberta's smaller towns and cities will benefit by the creation of new industry within their borders. That's why a special incentives fund has been created to assist municipalities of under 30,000 people.

Loans are made to reviving industrial concerns that want to expand, diversify or modernize present facilities. Or to new industry wishing to establish in these centers.

In centive loans cannot exceed 1:1 of the approved capital cost or up to $250,000. And, these are forgivable loans.

Loans to tourist facilities.

This program is designed to accelerate the growth of the tourist industry in Alberta. This is a continuing program offering individual loans as high as $100,000.

Financial assistance to industry.

CONFIRMATION HELD AT BETHANIA LUTHERAN

On Sunday, July 25th, a young people were confirmed and welcomed into the adult members of the Bethania Lutheran Church of Sedgewick, following their successful completion of the studies leading to Confirmation in the Lutheran Church.

The young people are: Keith Nordstrom, Robert Davis, Miss Dorothy Davidson and Miss Dorothy Davidson.

At the service, the newly-confirmed members of the church sang under the direction of Mr. John Peterson. Pastor H. G. Sponholz delivered a message on what it means to receive new members in the congregation, both as the part of the old members and as the part of the new members. The old members must expect and accept a change, the new member must rely upon God and together with the old members accept equal responsibility under the leading hand of God's spirit.

The 48th Edition . . .

For forty-seven years, the local residents have had an agricultural fair in this area, and this year will make the forty-eighth edition of the Loughhead Agricultural Society's Fair, to be held next Saturday, Aug. 14. Much work and planning goes into each fair by the officers and directors. This fact is evident in the growing popularity of the event.

A modest beginning some fifty-two years ago the Goose Creek Agricultural Society Fair is a tribute to the past directors and best wishes for continued success. By working together in harmony and understanding, residents who serve on the board have set examples for townfolk and farmers to live up to.

This year there are 25 classes to suit every taste, from the nine sections for horses on halter, vegetables classes with 20 sections, to the six classes in Junior Art. With such a wide range of classes, there is ample scope for entries from every household, if not every person, in this district. If everyone was to do their part, a bigger and better fair would be the result. All it needs now is you!

A New M.L.A. . . .

The Sedgewick-Coronation Constituency will have an opportunity to choose a newcomer to represent the area in the 75-seat Legislature in Alberta. In the past, M.L.A.'s have often been concerned with issues of a federal nature whether they affected us or not.

Somewhere people have become confused between what the area with respect to and what an M.P. is representing us for.

Primarily the duty of the M.L.A. is to focus his attention on the area with respect to the province so as far as provincial policies are concerned.

The M.P. has a much larger area and is concerned with much larger issues, including grain marketing, national farm boards, and the various things that affect us nationally.

The province, having much more local scope, is concerned with child care, education, hospitals, recreation, boundaries, and progress, insofar as it affects areas and residents.

In short, local constituencies should go to their M.L.A. and through them apply pressure if they want to change anything. If it is a national policy, we should be lobbying the Member of Parliament with everything to go to the views expressed.

To often have citizens being led down the wrong path only to realize they have been attacking the problem from a different angle.

With an election imminent electors have the opportunity to select an M.L.A. who will represent the whole of the Constituency and its problems.

The Search For Jobs . . .

In Canada, hundreds of thousands are searching for work. In Asia, the situation is much worse. Many millions are unemployed, and the prospects for the future are bleak.

According to the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East, which recently held a seminar in Bangkok, the countries of Asia will have to find an additional billion jobs for the working population before the end of the century.

Today the Asian work force, aged between 15 and 64 years, is 1.5 billion. It will exceed 1.6 billion by 1985, and rise to about 2.3 billion by the year 2000.

There is a drastic difference between unemployment in the West and in Asia. In Canada, this economic disease can be reversed by welfare payments to Asian families whose breadwinners can't find jobs.

As Canada and the United States try to cure their economic ills, they must also remember the far greater problems of Asian lands. For there exist terrible dangers in Asia.

FACT and FEATURES that make John Deere your best buy

- New 18-hp in-belt. A shifter under-belt angle turns with the new shaft and position of the cylinder to give you increased turning area for any cylinder width.
- New straight-in conveyor. This conveyor surrounds more of the cylinder to give you increased turning area for any cylinder width.
- New synchronized rotary deflector. The so-called "baiter" now longer water-curtain cover. Cradled, there has been increased by 10% - from four to six inches.
- New exclusive super-conveyor system. This system continuously more "baiter" and separated grain to the churning shaft. Angles run from under the cylinder-conveyor to the rear of the rollers. They now graze back from the cylinder-conveyor area to the front of the churning shaft - steadily and evenly, no matter how the combine is loaded.
- Improved opposed-motion cleaning. Chalk and straw move in opposite direction to keep trash from building up in between and choking off part of the churning area. And late in a new and more powerful design. It delivers a rifle-shoot air blast.

We all know it's easier to make good toast now than it was 20 years ago. Appliances manufacturers have vastly improved the state of this breakfast art. And the toast tastes even better when you realize today's power costs less than half

End of an Era . . .

All good things must come to an end, or so the saying goes. And voters have ended a day-long stay in power for the Social Credit Party in Alberta. It is surprising to find such a large number of Progressive Conservative voters in our area. It seems that everyone voted that way. But then it is fashionable to be on the winning side.

There were, however, sufficient numbers in Sedgewick-Coronation constituency to elect a Social Creditor, and our congratulations are extended to Mr. Ralph Stevenson on his election to a seat in the Legislature.

The upset by Peter Lougheed's P.C.s poses some interesting questions. Some will take upwards to four years to answer, while some will be resolved sooner.

For example: Can anyone guess as to what will happen Provincial Treasury Branch? They are a Sovereign idea, in against the P.C. free enterprise system.

If and where will a Senior Citizen Lodge be built in this constituency? It was an underlying local election issue.

Can Harry Strome and his experience M.L.A. fill the role of Opposition? Will our stewardship bill next election time be impressive enough to re-elect or will the Secreds go back in?

My predictions were all wrong re August 30th, but it'll be an interesting "wait and see."

"It's strictly up to you fellows to decide how you want to share it."

MACDUFF REPORT

When he announced his minor changes in the cabinet recently, Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau in effect admitted he had given up what had once been one of his fondest dreams, about running a government. If a leader wants to retain some support he cannot move his cabinet Ministers around the pawns in a chess game.

The latest changes in the make up of the cabinet were very minor — in fact the least possible shuffling that was required to fill ten vacant positions. At least, Gillespie, a 50-year-old Toronto banker, was formally named head of the recently created Ministry of State for Science and Technology. To fill the post of minister of communications vacant since Eric Kilmer's resignation, the Prime Minister promoted Robert Stanbury. The 41-year-old Toronto lawyer had been serving as minister without portfolio in the cabinet. The Minister of State where he has been responsible for information Canada. The Prime Minister and his officials must have been happy with the failure of information Canada to shut off the ground. There is little for a minister of communications to do as he is a side place in get Mr. Stanbury.

As Mr. Stanbury's replacement was made, it was clear that the government was not in a hurry to complete the job of turning its ideas into law. They don't want to be taken out of a position until their legislative "baby" can stand on its own feet. By having them as their jobs, Mr. Trudeau has shown a very real ability to handle people.

LETTER BOX

Dear Sir: We are enclosing $4.00 for another year to your Community Press. We enjoy your paper so much it is like a letter from home. Keep up with the good news of Canada, also of other places of interest. Bye for now!

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Souveth
Vancouver, B.C.

LETTERS
I wish to respond to the letter in the August 21st issue of the paper. It is to answer some of the questions that were brought up by Mrs. Irene Yellie. This reporter is a copy of a letter in the editor that appeared in the August 14th issue of the Edmonton Journal. The letter was written by Mr. G. C. Brundage, Director, Plant Industry Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

The department does know what research has been done on this chemical. Lanate was developed by Dupont in the U.S. before it has been in use for about three years. It has also been used in Canada for three years on vegetables. Chemists there is considerable research on this chemical. Lanate was developed by Dupont in the U.S. before it has been in use for about three years. It has also been used in Canada for three years on vegetables.

Mr. Trudeau has always argued a prime minister should be able to pick the best M.P.'s available to fill cabinet vacancies. He may not be in the recent appointments. He is the ideal man for the job. He will go into the next election with a strong cabinet consisting of men from Toronto.

A more important change in the prime minister's thinking has been his abandonment of the idea that he could change cabinet ministers from one job to another. When he became prime minister, Mr. Trudeau, a cabinet minister should change jobs as a cabinet minister would always be handled by a man with fresh ideas.

The recent change left most ministers in the job they were given for the first time. More than three years ago, Trudeau said that he would have the same minister in the next election, perhaps a year from now.

By leaving ministers in the same jobs for the first time, Mr. Trudeau has revealed that the government is prepared to make some changes.

Fire Can Break Your Heart

Fire broke a lot of hearts last year. The hearts of the families and friends of the 638 Canadians who died because of fire. Of these 638 victims, 224 were children — an increase of 15 over the preceding year.

The $200,000,000 property waste is our highest loss so far. The Dominion Fire Commissioner estimates that the monetary losses of fire — stoppage of production and consequent unemployment — are five times the direct loss, or over one billion dollars.

However, figures indicate a downward trend in the number of yearly household fires, despite the construction of more than a million new homes in the past decade.

Fire is a stern teacher. People tend to think of fire as an accidental misfortune. It isn't.

Behind most fires there is carelessness or neglect. Take, for example, the 5,000 fires that occur in our homes each year. Careless smoking, moused or faulty electrical equipment, defective wiring are the cause of most of these fires.

The man who has nothing to boast of but his illustrious ancestry is like a potato — the only good belonging to him is underground.

Rural Alberta In

The New Government

Metropolitan man and the rustic of rural Alberta are not quite the same animal. Although each intent on the deadly pursuit of making a name for itself, its style and attitudes are dissimilar. This is shown in some extent in the results of the election on daylight saving time, as Calgary and Edmonton carried the day for the measure over the solid opposition of the rural voters.

The big city dweller believes the beginning and the end of the universe is in his city; this is where the action is. To him the seemingly insurmountable problems of city living are paramount and vast happens in the quiet hinterland outside his milieu of small matter. His attitude is reflected in his newspapers, the Edmonton Journal and Calgary Herald, which oftentimes reveal the opinion that the economic current that sweeps people off the farms and out of the towns into the big cities is irreversible and that they look askance at the quality of life to improve the quality of life, while the population explosions are creating insatiable need for massive infusions of governmental capital. Edmonton and Calgary. Their reception of Gordon Taylor's Grid Road program is an illustration.

We wonder to what extent this attitude permeates the hierarchy of the new government of Corporation Lawyer Peter Lougheed? It is a government composed of 25 members

One Trudeau or Two

One of the biggest questions in federal politics today is whether the nation's economy, or with Canada's relations with the United States. The question which has kept many minds busy is whether the Prime Minister should be re-elected or not.

Mr. Trudeau was raised in the traditional belief that a man should not be judged by his deeds but by his intentions. If he is a good man, he should be judged by his intentions. If he is a bad man, he should be judged by his deeds.

The Prime Minister doesn't talk about this, of course, but he has been putting his name on public view.

Your Chev/Olds dealer introduces the 1972 Chevrolets and Oldsmobiles.

This is your year for a new car. Be glad. Because here's a wide choice of truly fine cars. From Chevrolet your choice ranges all the way from the zippy little Vega, the little car that does everything well, to the big Chevy Caprice. Remember, all Big Chevs give you room, power steering, power brakes, power windows, you get the V8 engine, automatic transmission. All standard. Between the little Vega and the big Chevy you get Nova. This is the too-big, not-too-small Chevrolet. The famous-for-dependability Chevrolet. A shade bigger and a touch sportier than Nova is the Chevelle. A mid-size car with a lot of big ideas. Especially in its ride and passenger comfort. Or is this the year you step up to Oldsmobile? Cutliss must fit it easy. This is the intermediate-size Oldsmobile, with the style, comfort and performance that say Oldsmobile all the way. Cutliss. Put you in an Oldsmobile

Blackmail?

Things seem to be at an impasse on the Federal scene, with regard to monies being withheld by the government under the Temporary Wheat Reserves Act. The government is trying to pass new legislation to replace this Act. The Conservatives are blocking the passage of the new laws, as they feel it needs more modifications.
The Prime Minister, speaking on television Sunday, says the new act will provide much more monies over the next three years, and specifically, 100 million, as compared to 65 million this year, to be paid to farmers.
Why is it so important to make the payments retroactive to last spring? It would seem more reasonable to pay the sixty-four million dollars owing, and then pass the new legislation to cover the next three years. Could it be, that they are perhaps trying to whitewash the proposed Income Stabilization Plan?
Both Uniform and the Alberta Wheat Pool, which represent a great number of farmers, feel the new act needs revisions. The present proposal takes no account of the serious effects of inflation on prairie grain income, and increased cost of production. There is also need for a two-price system for wheat used for human consumption in Canada.
It does not recognize government responsibility for maintaining a normal reserve of grain, and it requires producers to make contributions, whether or not the price received for grain meets the cost of production.
In his Sunday address, the Prime Minister intimated the party might be willing to go to the people on this question. Perhaps he should, as he may find western farmers are not as glibly as often thought. It may mean the end of his reign.
We need greater virtues to sustain good fortune than had—

Will you help us? Your youngster is performing a valuable and responsible service of which you can be justly proud. We know you will want your boy or girl to continue to help other people.
But what you want to know, as you do, that your child is safe while he is at school is not "sitting" and that the children who are left in your child's care are equally safe.
The Alberta Safety Council reminds these parents for your baby's safety:
1. Insist on knowing the family for whom your child is sitting. Write down their exact names, the address and phone number. It is not advisable to leave your child to sit alone about the lateness of the hour they return.
2. Insist on having your child return at a reasonable hour, if employed in the evening, so that she (or he) can have adequate supervision and a safe ride home. Do not allow a child to accept employment where the employer does not know about the lateness of the hour they return.
3. If it is your daughter who is sitting, demand that she be brought home by an adult if she is to be out after dark. This rule applies to young boys too.
4. See that your young child has the riding of safety and child care so that duties will be performed competently and employers will be assured that their children are in good hands while they are absent.

Hardisty News

We wish to congratulate our job technicians, Miss Myrtle McEldon on her marriage in Camrose on Saturday. The happy couple plan to continue to live in New Haven.

Glad to see Fred Drager down town again. His daughter Georgia Fred and little son have been down to visit with Fred and Mary.

The O.R.E. and their guests, the Dims, and families had a social evening in the hall last Tuesday. Games were played, Christmas cards were sent, and after a delicious supper of turkey and all the trimmings, gifts were exchanged with brought cheeriest pleasant evening in a long time.

Opportunity For You . . .

Government agencies are going all out this year to provide training and education for the labour force and unemployed.

One such program is Training-on-the-Job, which is expected to provide training for 15,000 persons. A fund of $20 million has been provided for the program. The program aims at encouraging employers to prepare for future expansion in the firm or industry by training unemployed but employable workers for such future jobs in actual work situations.

To interest employers, the federal government will reimburse up to 75% of the wages paid to trainees during the first year of a write-off of wage costs.

You needn't wait for the busy period to hire new, qualified workers; you can hire and train your own, right now.

Here's a chance for workers to become fully competitive in the labour market: they can earn while learning in actual working situations, on the job that may require special experience for 3 to 12 months time.

To qualify for Training-on-the-Job under the terms of the Canada Manpower Training-on-the-Job Program, employers will be required to:

1. Show training capability.
2. Offer adequate working conditions.
3. Provide training for a minimum period of 3 months and not to exceed 12 months.
4. Offer training in skills which will lead to employment within the employer's organization and/or are readily transferable.
5. Hire workers for such training period will be in addition to their current or regular labour force. No contracts will be entered into with employers alone.

I.O.D.E. Makes Use of Gift

KILLAM — The January meeting of Prince Rupert I.O.D.E. was held at the home of Mrs. E. Brodie. Due to the cold weather and the meeting was postponed, making a lot of correspondence to be dealt with at this meeting.

The members of our Chapter held appreciating the Killam Ladies having to be on hand at their homes, the occasion being Prince Rupert's 10th Anniversary. The gift of a travel and the stand, suitably marked for the occasion, was presented to the Chapter from the Ladies of the Killam Chapter and used at this meeting.

After the opening of the meeting, Margaret Manning gave a very good report of the work of the Chapter. She suggested that the Ladies Chapter give complimentary tickets to the Literary Hour which had been selected, but only a few had come. These readers, who have been asked to read "With the Wind" will now find it among the new books in the library.

Treasurer Mrs. Lachy gave her usual report, which showed that the Chapter had made donations to several of the Order's worthy projects. Donations were paid and I.O.D.E. cashes handed out.

A letter was read from the Executive Committee which the chapter is sent Canadian Dry cigarettes. The members decided to give it a try.

The Secretary was instructed to send Mrs. Hopper's name to the "Page of Remembrance".

After the meeting, the members dealt with from the correspondence, and some letters will be dealt with at the next meeting.

Report Mrs. Stewart closed the meeting, and lunch was served by the hostess.

GREEN ACRES

Well, out of the clear blue, a private system in which a farmer could make a profit by growing crops that would be sold to the government. This is the idea behind the Green Acres program.

The program is designed to help farmers who are having difficulty making a profit from their crops. It allows them to sell their crops to the government at a guaranteed price.

The program is very simple to use. Farmers just need to fill out a form and send it to the government. They will then receive a check for the value of their crops.

The program is a great way for farmers to make a profit from their crops. It is a simple and easy way to get paid for their work.

Mr. Central High, Sedgewick
The recent cancellation of the shock and disappointment to us

We have felt a great deal of

We are very completely qualified as a principal and

OTTAWA — Trade talks bet-

Tough Positions

ween Canada and the United States have come to a standstill and there is no great desire on the part of either government to resume the talks in the face of general elections in both countries.

In effective politics at this time for both the American and Canadian governments to be taking a firm stand in trade negotiations. This applies particularly to the Canadian government where the wares of Canadian nationalism that has been sweeping across the country has certainly not gone unnoticed. Industry, Trade and Commerce Minister Jean-Luc Pepin told a press conference that both Canada and the U.S. have indicated that when the talks get underway again, each side will adopt a "tough" approach in the bargaining.

There will be a general election in November in the United States this year. When the election will come in Canada as everyone knows as yet except Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and he isn't saying.

It will not do the American government any harm to be essentially driving a hard bargain with Canada when the factors in that country favor the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury John Connally announced that the American government has worked out some working arrangements with the Japanese Economic Community and with Japan earlier this year. However, he said, he regretted to say that no agreements had been reached with Canada. He added that the American administration will seek appropriate means of reducing imbalances in trade agreements with Canada.

The Canadian government has offered some concessions but they have been given mainly as an American weapon. Mr. Pepin in a press conference in the last week of March confirmed that the Canada-U.S. Anti-Pat has become a major stumbling block preventing an agreement in the trade talks to date. He said no agreement could be reached on the anti-pat because "we weren't talking about the same thing."

The discussions with the Americans failed to admit that the purpose of Canadian negotiators entering into the trade talks was to discuss irritants. They were relatively minor problems but during the talks, the Americans began talking about irritants plus concessions.

So said the Americans pointed out that Canada had benefited from the revelation of currencies around the world and had also had the Japanese market opened a bit because of the U.S. effort. It was the view of the Americans that they deserved some rewards and Canada was inclined to agree.

However the Americans carried the talks further than the Canadians had anticipated. The U.S. participants began talking about the total trade balance between Canada and the U.S. the balance of payments and inflows and outflows of capital. The Canadian began to get the feeling that the Americans were taking the position that our country had no right to try to have a surplus in trade and merchandise with the U.S.

The Canadian government refused to adopt such an attitude. When Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau visited President Richard Nixon late last year he came away with the report that the President recognized that Canada could at times realize a surplus in trade and merchandise with the U.S. However that feeling does not seem to have percolated down to the lower levels in the American administration.

Accordingly at the trade talks Canada and the U.S. negotiators agreed to disagree and they were both left off.

In the meantime according to Mr. Pepin, Canada has made it known to the Americans that if and when the trade talks are resumed the Canadian government will take a tough position. In their turn, the U.S. government has declared it too intends to be tough but objective.

As a result, relations in trade matters between the two countries have cooled off.

In the interval, Canada's officials at the Embassy in Washington are continuing contacts with the U.S. government. Mr. Pepin says Canada will be prepared to resume the talks if and when the Americans say they are willing however far so they to the deep freeze zone in sight.

Helmut is Deeply Concerned . . . with the urgent need for reduction of industries in major centres like Montreal who can readily meet all requirements of the farm.

With the farm community, especially those who were born and raised on the farm. With the survival of the small towns and communities, in the face of the continuing trend to centralization.

With the inadequacy of the present farm marketing process as well as the problems of grain storage and transportation.

For the ninth consecutive year the Canadian Wildlife Federation is co-ordinating a national Wildlife Week. With the kind cooperation of those provincial departments responsible for resource management and for education, these will be distributed to schools throughout Canada. To help local groups of hunters and anglers focus attention on National Wildlife Week.

GNP W-H-A-T

Something called the "Gross National Product" has become a cherished statistic of economists, even more so of politicians, probably because it tends to become larger every year.

GNP is an estimate of a nation's total output of goods and services, valued at its own currency.

Canada's 1971 GNP has been announced as $92.13 billion, an astronomical figure, quite close in fact to the total distance in million-miles between earth and sun. It is up 9.1 per cent from 1970, when it was 7.5 per cent over 1969.

If rising GNP is a prosperity indicator, which many people think it is, these figures should cause gratification.

But others are sceptical about GNP, or at least the way we interpret it. Statistics Canada credits over a third of last year's gain to "Price increases," which very inflation so generally conceded to be a bad thing.

Far from signalling a boom in the Canadian economy, this ## Summer Jobs ...

In the last few years I have heard much talk about teenagers loafing around all summer, with nothing to do.

The fact is, in our area, there are very few summer jobs to be had. If more jobs were created, there would be less loafing. For example: farmers need help picking rocks, pulling roots, helping with haying and other chores among other things. Service stations require attendants. Our towns need cleaning up, a good opportunity for young people to be involved in community clean-up programs. Our playgrounds could use supervisors. They require babysitters, or people to help with house-cleaning, gardens, and lawns. These are only some suggestions. I'm sure there are many more opportunities for working than there are.

Help us to become useful members of our community. Help us to find jobs!

— by Cecile Bosch

Political Campaigning ...

Political Campaigning, when you get down to it is really nothing but a big farce.

The candidates that are running for Political positions are very eager to meet the people, to shake hands and hear how much they care. But after the election they're very inaccessible; too busy to see the people that got them where they are.

Yes, these fine candidates travel around to different towns trying to impress you with their promises and sincerity. But are the promises fulfilled after the people get in?

All they wanted in the first place was your vote. Now that they are in they don't give a darn about you as a person.

In other words, most of them are out to benefit one person and thus themselves.

The Farmer ...

What is the farmer? A farmer is many things that a lot of people never think of.

He is a part veterinarian for he takes care of a wide variety of animals. He is a mechanic for he has to repair everything that crops to grow in order to receive the most money because prices and demand have great fluctuations.

Many farmers build sheds for machinery and livestock and other buildings so they can be classified as carpenters.

A great number of farmers are part trucker, for they have to move their produce to where it will be sold.

A farmer has to be full of hope. Hope that his crop will grow, and the prices will stay high. Hope that he will not get hauled out or that he doesn't have a wet fall which he doesn't get his crop off. He also has to hope that the insurance doesn't strike and kill his livestock or his crop.

All these things prove that a farmer has to be many things.

— by Raymond Arntzen

Mammoth Changeover ...

The white paper on metric conversion gives Canada a head start in North America's efforts to dump familiar customary units in favour of the metric system. However, many basic problems result from this:

First, of all the U. S. does not accept the metric conversion. It will create many problems for Canadian industries. The farm industry, for example, would have to be fully conversant in both systems, because they deal frequently with U. S. firms.

Secondly, an extensive training program will have to be initiated including pamphlets, and training schools outlining the new metric units and their use.

So, for the farmer, metric first of all means he must go back to school.

Thirdly, a serious warning that comes from the Canadian metric talks is that farmers will be affected by metric changes to agricultural equipment. Nuts, bolts, tires, various other parts bolts, tires, and various other parts will be changed in size. This could cause an increased need for new equipment when parts are no longer available.

But these aren't all the farm business sections that will be affected by the changeover. These include feed formulas and mixing, herd recording, arising data, surveying and numerous others. It will mean a Mammoth Changeover for Canadian Farmers.

Wildism is knowing what to do next. Skill is knowing how to do it. Virtue is getting it done.

Lets Do It . . .

When talking in a group, reference is often made to the young people, often dealing on the bad points of these young people. This is regrettable thinking, and it's up to us to change in some way.

Why not take a positive course and start right now to list the good points of our young people. The list, for example, written or mental. Now — go one step further and talk to your neighbors, friends, etc. about the strong points of this age group, keeping count of their merits and accomplishments. The list is getting longer, and often one or

A Renewed Sense . . .

The last few years have been witness to an enormous growth of community awareness. Much of this may have been due to a larger awareness, the assessment of today's values on the part of many of our young people. Some of it may be the result of personal soul-searching on the part of parents and other people.

In a comparatively prosperous country in which our children are known to be emotionally disturbed, many of them seriously, one of our greatest concerns must be the disregard of nineteenth century attitudes towards mental illness.

Tourism In The Big Country

The Provincial Government is doing a commendable job in bringing to the attention of Albertans tourism as one of our major industries. It is just that, whether we travel within our borders every summer and winter, or whether we cater to visitors from other lands.

We are urged to develop tourism, get involved and hold out the "glad hand" and "good by the top" by way of garnering those tourist dollars. The principles of cultivating tourists are well-founded, for tourist dollars are a part and parcel and ever increasing contribution to the economy of the province.

We hope the time will come when the government tourist department will be able to look beyond the Rocky Mountains and the foothills or the International Border points of entry as means of attracting tourist dollars.

For instance, the Provincial Dinosaur Park at Steepleville is recognized in Alberta as one of our most "closely guarded secrets," and not too many years ago, we in and around Hinton had to fight tooth and nail to get a campaign on, or adjacent to number 1 highway.

These may be "petty" things, but they do indicate that while we as Albertans are anxious as the government to promote tourism, we must have more participation from the latter. Good roads, good eating places, adequate campsites, etc., all under the province, and advertising contribution to point out attractions are just some of the important factors that contribute to the promotion of Alberta as a haven for tourists. Individuals as well as government can help, but the government too can use some of its imagination and initiative.

"Tourist business is every-one's business," including our government, so let's all get involved!" —Hanna Herald

Horrendous Interest . . .

Most people agree that "a penny saved is a penny earned." That is why discount stores are having their heyday.

So deep rooted is the adage that it is alleged that some people spend a dollar to save a dime. But surely that's a rarity.

But there are a few places where you can save by avoiding extra payment charges on overdrafts and that . . . if saving is earning . . . earn yourself up to 36,500 per cent per year!

Example 1: In some parts of Canada, public utilities commissions award two awards on their monthly billing: One amount if the bill is paid by a certain date, a larger amount if the bill is paid after a specific date. Sometimes these are called "net amount;" (if paid by a certain time) and "gross amount;" (if paid after that date).

But if you examine your bill closely, it will be realized that the gross amount contains an additional charge for late payment. The "net" is not a discount at all; rather a penalty for late payment is contained in the gross.

This charge for late payment is, in reality, a credit charge. Public utilities usually charge 10 per cent for late payment. Therefore, if you miss the "discount" day by as little as one day, you pay a credit charge of 10 per cent for that day . . . or the horrendous rate of interest of 3,650 per cent per year.

Of course, that credit rate is cut in half for every day late you are. You are penalized more if you pay just one day late. It's better for you, if you must pay late, to pay as late as possible . . . just before they cut your service off!

On the other hand, it's best if you earn that so-called discount because that saves you the late payment penalty . . . and a penny saved is a penny earned.

Our Guard Down

OTTAWA — Paul Heltry, one-time Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Office, has started the alarm bell ringing again about Communist subversion in this country.

This is not the regular thing to do at this particular period when the Canadian Government has been promoting cheer and jubilation for the visit of the Soviet Union and Communist China.

In a letter to the Ottawa Citizen, Heltry writes on this subject that he is not an extreme right winger. He points out that President Richard Nixon, in his present relations with the two Communist nations.

However, Mr. Heltry has spoken out again. He has confessed his mounting alarm over the infiltration of our institutions by persons who he fears are as friends of the democratic way of life as he has been deceived by the late developments.

The former powerful member of the House has also declared he is concerned because of the manner in which the Prime Minister appears to "keep Canada safe."

Pioneers still needed . . .

The first European pioneers staked out their homesteads in Canada 174 years ago. On July first this year we celebrate the 160th anniversary of the day when their successors brought together their scattered hamlets and settlements into a confederated nation.

All history is the story of continuous exploration and discovery and colonization. If we are not to suffer national stagnation, we need to bring to life again the pioneer spirit, encourage freedom to change and grow, be willing to entertain suggestion, and provide growing space so that every person may develop skills to the fullest extent of his ability.

Every man and woman in Canada can invent something, do something new, or do something old in a better way. There are opportunities for pioneers in industry, agriculture, education, finance, literature, music, art, technology and home making.

Everyone is to some extent a pioneer. He notices a situation wherein improvement can be made, foresees the course of events a little, pictures in his mind's eye a desirable outcome, and devises means by which he will bring about the betterment. Every generation produces people who seek after new lands, and some are as fortunate as Aladdin.

The men and women who came into Canada in the 1500's were starting life, as it were, once more at the beginning, subsisting roughly in a land where there were none of the comforts of Europe. They fell back upon long-inactive instincts and they reclaimed forgotten crafts.

We need the pioneering spirit as urgently as ever.

Feed freight assistance

AGRI-IMPACT
Prepared by the Alberta Wheat Pool
The distribution and pricing of feed grains in Eastern Canada and British Columbia continues to be important to prairie grain producers. The substantial quantities of feed grain shipped from prairie provinces to feed grain deficient areas in the United States and additional market for grain producers. Feed grain shipments from the prairie provinces to the United States are paid under the Feed Freight Assistance Program of the Canadian Livestock Feed Board. Shipments of feed grain from Ontario may also qualify for feed freight assistance.

During the 1971-72 crop year, 2,274,000 tons of feed grain were shipped from the prairie provinces to the United States. This represented a slight decrease from 2,380,000 tons of feed grain with an average freight assistance payment of $1.41 per ton, the total expense to the United States was $3,207,780, a reduction from the previous year.

Almost half (48.1%) of the feed grain shipped to the United States in a payment was to Quebec. Compared to one year earlier, head transfer by lake vessel from 25% to 35% of all feed grain shipped to the United States. The large drop in feed grain shipments to the United States was largely due to increased Ontario production. About 100,000 bushels of feed grain shipments from Ontario to the United States were shipped in 1971-72. This was a decrease from 1970-71 when 150,000 bushels of feed grain were shipped to the United States. The decrease was due to the fact that the United States market for feed grain from Ontario was not as strong as in the previous year.

People's campaign

BACKUP REPORT

OTTAWA—When Prime Minister Trudeau announced that there would not be an election this month, the Liberal Party campaign would be done at taxpayers' expense. The Progressive Conservatives, the New Democrats and the Social Credit members of Parliament are able to utilize public funds in their campaign but not to the extent that the Liberal Party will enjoy.

The fact that the Liberals will be able to continue campaigning vigorously — if necessary, even to the extent of paying the cost of the election — is a major advantage in the democratic system. ## Why work . . .

As unemployment continues to be one of our national problems, periodically a head of government will say philosophically—in reference to those who refuse a job paying only $1.05 an hour—"well, if they don't want to work, why should they?" Others will echo a dream that in the future, according to them, we will all be on a 3 or 4 day work week of leisure.

In this what we really want? Any society, all the way from primitive cultures up to the sophisticated and come North America variety, consists of individuals who are mutually dependent upon each other. We found this out in recent strikes, and in particular, postal strikes of the past. It is a fact of life that we are interdependent.

Work is not a hangover from the Puritans. It is fundamental to the human condition to have challenges and to meet them, to pit his skills against nature, to provide a service to society through work, even if it isn't always the kind of job we would choose if we had a larger choice, give one self-respect and a sense of value. Man needs to contribute something to the general pot, as it were. The invidious effect of continued unemployment is to create first, anxiety, then hopelessness, and finally, apathy, which in turn leads to degradation of the human being.

Instead of treating unemployment facetiously, heads of state and governments could be seriously involved in developing more beautiful cities and towns, with greater public services, thus creating employment. Preventive medicine in the form of gymnastics, more tennis courts, golf courses, bicycle riding gardens, you name it—where some people can be employed and others find recreation—is another area government might consider.

As a recent survey from coast to coast reveals, Canadians from labourers to executives, believe the right to a job should be a fundamental right for all.

CLIP OF THE PRESS

We're not smitten . . .

The announcement that the Klu Klux Klan are seeking permission to organize in Alberta with various chapters does not surprise us, for under the law they are entitled to do just that. Their actions have been notified including recognition of supremacy of the white race in these chapters and as upholding Protections. We can do nothing but look at the record and that is all that can be done, but some people have reservations about them. It has been reported that in the time they intended to Lacombe in the early history of this province with which we believe was an editor of a weekly newspaper. How far the incident went, and how much they were involved, we do not know, but it was an incident that has come down through the years and one that does not give a "good taste" if it is true.

Well, of course we do not believe that because we are white we are superior, or that, because we are Protestant, this is the only way of religion. We have equal regard for all races, creed, color, religion and race without singling ourselves out as the best. For we've made too many mistakes in the past.

We hope they do not get actively organized.

Gym dandy question . . .

Since our views on education are generally "way out" with the rest of society, we don't often comment on the decisions made by those in charge. Public officials are charged with the responsibility of providing the educational needs of the County. Often, as this writer, we are well-thought-through, and fair decisions made with the facts they have at hand.

Some decisions appear to be hasty and not researched if one reads the written minutes and does not delve into committee reports. This is, however, not the case with the recent controversy over the Loughshead School (Gym). Large portions of at least three meetings have delved into the matter, and another is to be held in late August.

The facts, as I read them, indicate that in the next three years, over fifty students will leave the Loughshead School, while a projection shows that less than twenty coming in, over the same period. That will leave less than 100 students in Grades 1 to 9, to use a gym. At the same time, the situation in the area, which must be given serious consideration. Each school committee must consider the responsibilities in the area, as well as the needs of the community. A decision be guided by their conscience.

Future of Dr. Worth . . .

It's good to see that Dr. Walter Worth has had difficulty getting a new job following the completion of the Witham Commission's comprehensive report on the future of education in our province.

Not that there was much concern about his personal future, but his appointment as deputy minister to advanced education minister Jim Foster, insures at least that the report will not be shelved.

We don't agree with the entire report, but much of it is sound. It should be helpful in that it provides details to ensure proper education of future generations.

And now Dr. Worth is in a position where he can recommend to the minister and indirectly, the cabinet, implementation of sections of his report. That's good.

What's even better is that the report will retain a position of prominence instead of advancing to file 13 where so many government reports lie in oblivion.

Highway 36 . . .

If you travel on the Highway that is a real headache.

You are apt to see some nasty holes that cut your tire.

The holes of mud and cattle, and the holes of mud and cattle.

Have done with all.

Have done with all, and quite a bit, its surface.

As it's beautiful as anyone can get.

As it travels through the Province, it is a joy to see the beauty.

The beauty is a picture with its valleys, lakes and mountains.

But you can't admire beauty when you're waiting out for holes.

Summer time is government time

Comments reacting from New Horizons Program in the summer, the opposition and the government are doing so in a spirit of good will. A series of press conferences and news conferences have been held in the past few days, in which the government has announced its plans for the summer. The opposition has also held press conferences, and the government has responded to them. The situation is one of a healthy exchange of views.

At over 400 steps he took some hands and was photographed. This is a much better way of doing it than the usual way of having a press conference. The opposition has also held press conferences, and the government has responded to them. The situation is one of a healthy exchange of views.

LETTER BOX

To the Editor,
I am writing to you to express my disappointment in the way the government has handled the situation. The opposition has been treated unfairly, and the government has not been forthcoming in its dealings with the public.

There is also a good deal of concern about the future of the province. The government has not been forthcoming in its dealings with the public, and the opposition has been treated unfairly.

Hail suppression report

The effectiveness of hail suppression has been a very controversial issue in Alberta for some time. The government has been accused of not doing enough to suppress hail, and the opposition has been accused of not doing enough to suppress hail.

The report indicates that the government has been successful in suppressing hail in some areas, but not in others. The opposition has been successful in suppressing hail in some areas, but not in others.

Two ideologues meet . . .

Two events of world wide importance involving Canada are happening this week on the sports scene. Our finest amateur athletes are competing in the Olympics in Germany, and the Russian hockey team is playing a Canadian team.

I find both events distracting to say the least. As of Sunday none of the Canadian athletes have won a gold medal. Other smaller and poorer countries have fared better than us. I wonder where the trouble lies.

Then on Saturday night the Russians beat our N.H.L. players by a lopsided score. This game caused a great many Canadians and as one "Team Canada" official stated the players were the finest dedicated professionals in the country.

Bonus for busing . . .

Alberta school boards will receive a 10 percent bonus for busing students as a means of avoiding new school construction.

Education Minister Lou Hyndman announced the new policy when it was approved by cabinet on August 15th. The bonus applies to those instances in which "where a board chooses to transport children from a crowded or overcrowded school to one with empty classrooms in order to forego construction," said Mr. Hyndman.

The bonus will be $5.00 per student, per year on buses ordered by the board, or under contract to it. In other words — yellow buses.

For students traveling via public transit systems, the bonus will be $4.50 per student, per year.

In addition, bus grants will be to be scaled upwards with the removal of a ceiling clause under the old regulations. This ceiling restricted grants to the average cost of previous years going back to 1967.

MACDUFF REPORT

Liberal campaign

OTTAWA—While the Liberals will face the polls this time around the Prime Minister will be greatly changed.

No longer will he be the "wonder" who will be galloping around the country, riding news headlines and putting on driving exhibitions at high speeds. He will be a man who will be a hard-working leader. That time will be a hard-working leader. That time will be a hard-working leader.

Indications are that Mr. Trudeau will face the same pressure and the same constraints as was facing the country's last Prime Minister.

However the Liberal Campaign Committee plans to have a more active role in the campaign. They will be a man who will be a hard-working leader. That time will be a hard-working leader.

Recommendations . . .

The Task Committee on Urbanization and the Future, in its report, mentions many of the problems confronting the rural communities. One of the problems of declining populations in small centres could be offset by decentralization of government services. This would help to repopulate the region, and it would help in the creation of a multiplier effect on goods and services. Perhaps the railway and automotive companies would follow their lead.

Historically, rural people survived through co-operation and community effort, whereas now inter-community competition is the case. The Task Committee recommends a system of taxation be implemented so as to encourage regional and inter-community co-operation.

The Committee also concludes that the livelihood of many smaller towns is directly related to the agricultural community. In such cases, communities provide a service function for the surrounding farms.

The Task Committee went on to recommend local development companies; that banks become more active in their production. In addition, they recommended that young people be encouraged to enter farming, by making farming as attractive as work in the bigger centres.

The Task Committee suggests that government and farm organizations look into the formation of co-op farms, with co-operatively owned machinery, the economies of leasing or renting farm machinery, and the concepts of land banks and permanent mortgages.

At present there is a movement toward the rationalization of the rural elevator system and

M.L.A. participates in censorship tour

SEDERBERG—CORONATION DISTRICT—The M.L.A. (S.C.)

This past week I participated in a Community Committee Tour where we met with Provincial Ministers in Vancouver, Regina, Winnipeg and Toronto. At the spring session of the Legislature a select committee of eight M.L.A.s was established to review existing Alberta legislation on the matter of Censorship.

This committee consists of five Government members and three Liberal members. The chairman has indicated that Public Inquiries will be held in the fall at different points throughout Alberta. After review recommendations will be submitted to the fall session of the Legislature.

The report of the committee which considered, discussed and advised on the matter, was made public last week. This report is not law at the present time. I shall certainly be taking my stand when the Government makes its recommendation. The report makes recommendations which in my opinion are much too generous.

Those who shared

Ever look up the origin of Thanksgiving? A desk encyclopedia gives this entry: "A national holiday . . . commemorating (the) harvest of Plymouth Colony in 1621 . . . Colonists and Indians shared the first feast."

While Thanksgiving is still with us, we might do well to ponder that bit of North American history.

It is time to remind ourselves that this country is lavishly endowed with beauty and natural resources, that our standard of living is among the world's highest; that, in spite of political and a rising crime rate, our cities are attractive and relatively safe . . . for the white majority.

They are a danger and frustration to most of the Indians who gravitate to them in ever-increasing numbers; who are lost both spiritually and materially, in the midst of plenty, and in a land their ancestors once claimed as their own.

To suggest that there's an easy solution to Indian problems would be folly; their own best leadership is as baffled as the ### Prevent more fires . . .

The past year in this locale has recorded three major fires, in three centers, causing close to $300,000 loss.

As Mill said "oh well, the loss was covered by insurance" and this is so. However, the insurance claims must have come from somewhere, and the premiums paid originally by the owners are usually pretty high. And will continue to rise with repeated fires.

The causes of the recent fires in Hardisty, Sedgewick and Loughdale have not been publicly announced. But somewhere along the line, carelessness could well have been the cause in all three fires.

ACID PRESERVATIVE FOR DAIRY GRAIN

Chemists, who only organic soil grain preservative available in Alberta, is being recommended for preserving grain intended for livestock feed.

Manufactured by Chemel Chemicals, it is a preservative for high moisture grain. Chemists has a native value in feed, feeding trials results suggest that grain harvested in 1971 and 1972 will be better than grain harvested in 1970.

Chemists has a higher moisture content than dry grain under the same conditions.

A special application is needed to properly treat high moisture grain with Chemel. The application rate is 10 to 20 lbs. per ton of grain. The recommended rate is 10 lbs. per ton of grain.

Take a reading on some of the things which may cause a fire in your business or home: Faulty wiring; Careless smoking; Children; Matches; Inflammable liquids; Oil rags; Defective heating equipment; or attic storage.

Your local fire department will give you advice at any time. They would sooner prevent a fire than be called out to fight a fire.

Remember, the deadline on resubmission of applications is October 21. It is to your advantage to submit your application as soon as possible.

With this year's slow harvest, the deadline could be a heavy one for knowing crop yields.

MACDUFF REPORT

OTTAWA — It's getting to the point where election will have to be called for a new candidate from the other side of the Conservative.

A sort of program will be put forward by the Liberal Party for the first time in Canada since the election of 1968.

For the first time in Canada since the election of 1968, the Liberal Party will be required to provide a program of government.

Under the Electoral Act, political parties may be required if they have 10 or more candidates in the field or were represented by 12 or more members in the last parliament.

It appears at this point the Liberal Progressive Conservatives, New Democrats and Social Credit will qualify.

This election means that for many years past, designation of party affiliation on the ballot may help the voter.

It is a party rather than the man or woman to whom they owe allegiance. Nominations have a definite effect on the Progressive Conservatives of the last election.

Conservative voters, but still more obscure support to the switch in Quebec to the Liberal and Social Credit.

Liberal and Social Credit voters in Quebec have been the reason for defection from the Liberal Party.

The past year in this locale has recorded three major fires in three areas, causing close to $300,000 loss.

Many will say "oh well, the loss was covered by insurance," and this is so. However, the insurance claims must be proven from somewhere, and the premiums paid originally by the owners are usually pretty high. And will continue to rise with repeated fires.

The causes of the recent fires in Hardisty, Sedgewick and Lougheed have not been publicly announced. But somewhere along the line, carelessness could well have been the cause in all three fires.

Fire Prevention Week in Alberta has been proclaimed for this week, October 8 to 14th, but fire prevention is something which must be carried out all the year round. Fire Prevention Week is only a seven day reminder to be careful 52 weeks each year.

According to Mr. Gervais, the amount of chemical sprayed on the province's forests is the most of the year. The recommendation for the use of fire retardant is to be applied to the forest in the month of October. The cost of application is about 10 cents per acre. ### Program needed

OTTAWA — It's getting to the point where election will have to get a program to tell the public about the other when it comes time to mark ballots on October 30.

A sort of program will be needed to tell the public about the other when it comes time to mark ballots on October 30.

After the revised election process parties may be required if they have 10 or more candidates in the field or were represented by 12 or more candidates in the field.

This election more than any other in many years past, designation of party affiliation on the ballot may help the voter if it is party rather than the man or woman to whom they owe allegiance.

You spend a lot of hard-earned dollars on your car. It makes sense to spend a few dollars more. Just a few. To buy yourself comfort during the cold winter months. Just play it to the harshest winter. No more wind-whistling. No more frozen seats. Owning an electric ice-warmer will give you that warm feeling inside.

BATTLE RIVER & MUTTON CREEK

Our meeting was held on December 1, at Battle River. 81 members answered the roll call. Then, the Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. This was followed by a report from the Treasurer and one on the Battle River Club's meeting by Thelma Barnes.

After the reports we discussed our Christmas Party. We decided to go to Lethbridge and invite friends.

Following our discussion, Mrs. Thelma Barnes gave a talk on job seeking. "What is Expected of You?"

Bruce Chert, Christine Barnes and Thelma Barnes brought gifts for the members.

After the meeting we enjoyed a good meal. This was followed by lunch.

From THE LIVING BIBLE

About this time Caesar Augustus, the Roman Emperor, decreed that a census should be taken through out the nation. (This census was taken when Quirinus was governor of Syria.)

Everyone was required to return to his ancestral home for this registration. And because Joseph was a member of the royal line, he had to go to his home town in Judea, King David's ancient home—journeying there from the Galilee village of Nazareth. His wife, Mary, his fiancée, who was obviously pregnant by this time.

And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born; and she gave birth to her first child, a son. (He was named Jesus in a market and had him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the village inn.)

Exporting our soil

AGE-IN-SIGHT

The preservation of Canada's precious production of dependent upon good soil conservation practices and the maintenance of adequate soil fertility presents a continuing problem. In particular, the demand for more food and fiber per acre plus the use of intensive farming practices have contributed to a decline in soil fertility. Canada's grain exports, which represent the export of a valuable resource, are the result of a decline in soil fertility. The loss of soil fertility is a serious problem, as it represents the loss of a valuable resource. The loss of soil fertility is a serious problem, as it represents the loss of a valuable resource.

Forerunners for establishment of a new tourist trail route to be known as The Greenhead Route, are now being made available to the public by the Provincial Executive held by the Government of Alberta on November 19th. The proposed new route will be offered for promotion and alteration to the Yellowhead Route between Saskatoon and Edmonton via BIGBAY, Camrose and Weyburn. The course will follow the Yellowhead Trail route Saskatchewan and Highway No. 1 in Eastern Alberta. New construction along the Saskatchewan portion of the route will be required to alter the route following between the two major cities and in providing an alternate route to the well known Yellowhead route. The proposed new passage of approximately the same distance. It has taken for its name the Greenhead Route because it is a new route that has been established by the Government of Alberta for the past numbers of years and consequently offering one of the best bird hunting areas in the province.

History of common Christmas traditions

"THE HOMEMAKER

Many of us bemoan the fact that Christmas is so commercialized today. I'm afraid this is here to stay as that is our way of life.

What can we do to make Christmas a little more meaningful in a world which seems to be constantly changing? One idea, I think, is to observe and develop little "traditions" in our Christmas festivities. We might try to obtain pleasure and security from looking back on memories of years gone by and repeating certain actions each year. We could make a Christmas card and even exchange Christmas cards with our friends. We could make a tradition that little girls should wear their busy way of life (only) and are often tempted to not their carrying out these little

The traditional appearance of Saint Nicholas in Europe is that of a bearded man riding on a white horse, carrying in a basket of gifts to the good children and a whip to punish those who are naughty ones.

Galahad School makes big hit in "old time Christmas concert"

Mr. Bowsher and family have devoted many years to the development of this sanctuary; their special interest is in the Canada goose. Some of those who winter at the Bowshers' are as tame as the ducks, and as near there. Many geese are also hatched by Lancaster.

On one slide, all were surprised to see one of Mr. Bowsher's "cubs" (a large black bear) actually grow porcupine (weighing about 35 pounds) which he had raised from a baby. In yet another slide the same daughter sat with a lap full of garter snakes, while in yet another, a great horned owl perched on her head as she walked around.

The boys really enjoyed Mr. Bowsher and gave him a hearty vote of thanks. At some future time it is hoped that Mr. Bowsher will come again when his programs may be enjoyed by many more people. His animal sanctuary is open to the public; visitors welcome.

The Cubs concluded with their hour, which ended the Cub program in 1972. They look forward to an active and interesting time in 1973.

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine whether there were differences in the prevalence of dental caries between children who had been exposed to fluoride varnish and those who had not. A total of 600 children aged 5-7 years were examined by dentists at a community health center. The results showed that the prevalence of dental caries was significantly lower in the group that had been exposed to fluoride varnish than in the control group.

Energy shortage

By KEVIN PETERSON
The long predicted energy shortage arrived on the political scene this week - and resulted in a confusing array of contradictory statements from federal and provincial officials.
The main impetus for the shortage is the expansion of exports, price increases and the eventual need to control exports from Canada has been forecast by the industry for some time.
But Alberta's Industrial Relations Minister Don Getty admitted a note of pessimism when he said in Edmonton interview that Alberta might face a fuel shortage by March.
At the same time, the provincial energy board forecast an average demand of 1.5 million barrels a day this year, while the peak demand during the winter was forecast at 2.1 million barrels. It admits the peak demand during the winter was forecast at 2.1 million barrels. It admits the peak demand during the winter was forecast at 2.1 million barrels.

One million children have learning disabilities

"In biblical times they were left outside the gates of the city," I sometimes think, "we haven't progressed very much." These words are those of a parent of a child with a learning disability.

The massive dimension of this problem in Canada has only been recognized in the past few years. It is estimated that 12% of Canada's population under 19 years of age, or one million children and youth suffer from some form of handicap — emotional or perceptual — which prevents them from learning in the normal way.

The failure and personal distress about these children has become louder. The professions have been stimulated to search for new ways to help these children and their families.

It is imperative, for a start, that those people who are most closely involved with children — teachers, school nurses, social workers, probation officers, and family doctors — be informed and included in programs of detection, prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation.

Children who need these programs include those who are neurotic, psychotic or exhibit behaviour disorders, retarded children, children with learning disabilities, children with a sensory or physical handicap, those who have been judged delinquent, those who are culturally or emotionally deprived. In order for these children to live normal, rich and full lives it is important that they not suffer isolation or segregation. Efforts must be made to ensure their normal experience of childhood, family, school and community.

To accomplish this the child must be viewed as a whole. In the past the child has been seen by different professionals. He is a medical patient to one, a difficult student to another, a ward of the Children's Aid to another, or a delinquent to another. This fragmentation leaves his need more acute. There must be continuity of service and care, and help available at the earliest possible moment. This care must be administered by the local community but the funds necessary and the standards to be set should rest with the Government of Canada, and with the Provincial governments.

The people of Canada must demand changes: in policy, planning, and practice; but most of all in attitudes. These reforms cannot be afforded. One million children cannot be failed.

There are some politicians who shake your hand before an election and shake your confidence after.

"You'd better take me next, doctor — I voted for him."

Transplanting hints for ornamental trees

Both evergreen and deciduous trees are being transplanted in the city of Edmonton. The city is moving a large number of trees from the city streets to the city parks. The city is also moving a large number of trees from the city streets to the city parks. The city is also moving a large number of trees from the city streets to the city parks.

There are a number of reasons why the city is moving trees. One reason is that the city is running out of space for trees. Another reason is that the city is trying to improve the appearance of the city streets. A third reason is that the city is trying to improve the environment of the city.

The city is also moving trees from the city streets to the city parks. The city is also moving a large number of trees from the city streets to the city parks. The city is also moving a large number of trees from the city streets to the city parks.

Grain crops . . .

ALBERTA

With wheat and rapeseed as the principal crops in Alberta agriculture, which ones under the heaviest returns to producers? The results of a study made by the Alberta Department of Agriculture have been published in a report titled "Grain Crops in Alberta".

The study shows that wheat grows anywhere in Alberta but does not return as many dollars to the farmer as rapeseed, which is grown in the south and west. Wheat is grown in the north and west, but returns are lower than those from wheat and rapeseed. Why then, do Alberta producers grow wheat and why do they not experience better returns from this crop?

Alberta Wheat Pool's analysis of cash costs, gross returns and returns to investment, labour and management, for wheat, barley and rapeseed, considered crop yields and grades for the several years to 1973. Within each crop district, the producer was categorized into one of three groups according to gross returns. The extent to which producers for each crop were determined by the Alberta Department of Agriculture has been provided in the report. The dollar returns in each district were higher than from wheat and rapeseed in the south and west. These were greater than wheat or barley in the other crop districts, although in districts No. 1 (Edmonton area) and No. 12 (northern Alberta), in all other districts, the gross returns per acre were greater for rapeseed. With the exception of crop district No. 1, the gross returns from either an acre of wheat or rapeseed were higher than wheat or rapeseed in the south and west. In crop district No. 1, wheat was the greatest return. Barley was next and rapeseed was third.

A consideration of the production and management of wheat and rapeseed in the south and west shows that each crop after cash cost deductions was the same. Wheat and rapeseed were grown in the south and west. These were greater than wheat or barley in the other crop districts, although in districts No. 1 (Edmonton area) and No. 12 (northern Alberta), in all other districts, the gross returns per acre were greater for rapeseed. With the exception of crop district No. 1, the gross returns

Independent, But Not Necessarily Neutral, To The Public Service

Sport madness . . .

The world is being taken over by professional sport. Remember gentler days of hockey on the radio and baseball, game and junior played out in the park? Football and basketball were something rich kids pursued at colleges.

But now—Wow—sport as a big business is blared on the top of the news on radio, breathlessly front-paged in newspapers, and is endlessly played and again replayed on television.

Church, fraternal groups, concerts and Home and School meetings have to fit their plans around "the game." Ministers don't dare hold Sunday evening services—or anything else during prime hockey evenings in the week. Hockey players are paid millions to jump leagues. Baseball cards are given away with bubble gum to hook the tots and buds of hockey players are packed in toothpaste cartons to enhance the hygiene.

The "60 Olympic is going to cost millions and the country over it may divide Canada as separatism never could.

Meanwhile, pinched school boards schedule only two periods of physical education a week, because they can't afford a proper daily program. Municipal recreation facilities limp along with inferior equipment.

What all this means is the end of the sticks for youngsters and adults who would rather play than watch—and rather play their exploitation. In short, it would help distribute wealth more in accordance with the view that all men have equal rights to dignity and opportunity.

Guaranteed income a must

When economist Robert Theobald's book outlining the Guaranteed Annual Income was published, it was discussed as lunacy. Less than four years later it was a major policy alternative for many western governments, including Canada's, which led Theobald to remark: "To accomplish the impossible, nowadays, it takes about three and a half years."

But it's one thing for a government to consider an idea, and another for it to implement it. Why is the government dragging its feet so slowly?

A Guaranteed Annual Income could give dignity to one-quarter of Canada's people who live under the poverty line. It would end the foolishness of Family Allowance checks for the well-off. It would force employers paying insufficient wages to cease their exploitation. In short, it would help distribute wealth more in accordance with the view that all men have equal rights to dignity and opportunity.

The need to do more than pay lip service to these rights has been recognized by such bodies as the United Church of Canada's Task Force on Poverty, and in the government's own Senate Poverty Committee Report, not to mention the Real Poverty Report.

Enough studies have been completed. The task is to implement some sort of Guaranteed Annual Income.

CLIP OF THE PRESS

Secret meetings . . .

A few months ago this paper decided to place a reporter at all council meetings. Mayor MacLean objected and tried to get the press excluded from council chambers until it was advised by the town secretary and councillors this was not legal. In fact, one councillor had suggested the press should attend council.

Recently M.L.A. R. Zander called on council for a special meeting. Our reporter asked to attend and was told the meeting was to be held "in secret."

A few days later the Blunt's Nursing Home application was apparently turned down. No one seemed to know why. What all was discussed?

Zander represents the people of this area as does council and he could they represent a disservice to the community as a whole by this type of "secret" negotiation or meeting.

Premier Leighton has the respect and confidence of the majority of the citizens of this district. It would be interesting to get his reaction to the above.

People of Alberta have been shocked by inquiries and investigations initiated by government members held in "secret." Let's get out in the open and tell people and the public what is going on. Meetings of this type breed suspicion and a feeling of ill will, not to mention insecurity.

Alfalfa dehydration, an opportunity

By Alberto Wolff Paul

Until recently, alfalfa has been produced locally as a forage or hay crop. However, producers are now able to convert alfalfa production to alfalfa dehydration plants throughout Alberta. With several plants currently in operation and many more in the planning stages, it is important for producers to examine the benefits and opportunities which alfalfa offers.

Producers converting alfalfa to dehydration plants are paid on the basis of a 5% moisture basis. The average price range from $11 to $14 per ton. However, with a fully equipped plant, the price can be increased by the plant at no expense to the producer.

Dehydrated alfalfa is sold at both domestic and export markets. Prices are $95 to $125 per ton F.O.B. the plant. The cost of alfalfa varies from about $8 to $10 per ton.

In addition to the economic opportunity which alfalfa offers, producers can also benefit from the "cash costs" and "return after cash costs" are covered. Cash costs were estimated for both domestic and export markets, with two cover crops—barley and flaxseed—on alfalfa and summer-fallow. In all cases, the net return figures were adapted from Alberta Agriculture's "Costs and Returns."

On original land, the best return for dehydrated alfalfa is investment, labor and management. The net return, representing a return with a finished nurse crop on alfalfa, is $12.50 per ton. The net return from the harvest of nurse crop accounted for a significant portion of the average annual return. Alfalfa seedlings with barley on stubble was most profitable at $18.57. Flaxseed and alfalfa were on irrigated land returned less than the net return of alfalfa without a nurse crop produced during the return.

Since alfalfa on irrigated land without a nurse crop produced a net return of $12.50 per ton, the net return of alfalfa on irrigated land without a nurse crop produced a net return of $12.50 per ton.

Although current seedling requirements for the production of alfalfa are not a problem, the decision of return from alfalfa without a nurse crop is a significant factor in the decision of return from alfalfa without a nurse crop.

Meetings of this type breed suspicion and a feeling of ill will, not to mention insecurity.

ANNOUNCING DO-IT-YOURSELF L.I.P.

Your Local Initiatives Program is even more local.

This year, $83 million is going to be invested in helping people help themselves in their community.

If you're a typical community, we're putting the "local" into the Local Initiatives Program by setting up a Constituency Advisory Group, or by having L.I.P. staff consult with already established groups. So now you help decide which projects will contribute most to everybody.

On the Constituency Advisory Group will sit a good representation from the community, including people active in community affairs, people from local government and social agencies, and L.I.P. sponsors from last year, all suggested by your M.P.

Your project could have up to $75,000 to work with, if your idea is a highly creative and innovative one.

All it takes is one good idea.

Applications available now at your nearest Canada Manpower Centre.

The message spoken, as always, will be the last Sunday in October.

Plans are being made for having the church basement slightly rearranged to make it more convenient for service lunches, etc.

The rally was won by Mrs. Vera Kretsch, the attendees by Mrs. Shirley Holster. Church four were business.

Mr. Barthel, our holiday girl, the "Misses" and the "Misses" gave the business prize. We had a lovely lunch complete with Chef Karl's birthday cake, and the opportunity of tasting Barthel's delicious truffles (a very delicious treat). The time was so short that we had very sorry for the absent ones who were not present.

The October meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. J. H. Meiss, western and harvest festival. The program will be as follows:

that they were moving to avoid providing and requesting the same grant as had been given to some other community hardware, was read and it was agreed that this matter be referred to the next County Council meeting.

The matter of there being no street light in front of the school at Graland was also brought up. A dark sky discussed and it was agreed that the local school's community representatives should look into requesting the town to install a street light at the corner in front of the school.

It was noted that the next County Council meeting would be held on the regular community meeting date of October 11, 1972 and that an intervention committee meeting would be held on that date commencing at 4:30 p.m.

The meeting adjourned at 1:16 p.m. as motion to meet again on October 31, 1972 commencing at 8:30 a.m.

The Community Press

Report of your paper . . .

As many of our readers realize, each issue of The Press carries of wide variety of news and advertisements from all parts of the County. Because of the large coverage and the acceptance of this paper, our subscription list grows larger each week. The "press run" for the past two weeks has been 1850 copies, which places us in a unique position. Unlike because we have such a large number of copies in an area where there is not a service center of over 1000 population. We may be the only one in Canada.

The strength and growth of The Community Press has been a combination of many factors. Firstly, there was the sound foundation of principals by the former owners, the Danks, and their dedication to the area, and not just one part of the area. Much credit goes also to district correspondents who make their weekly contribution interesting, thereby keeping other readers aware of their community. And then there are the advertisers who keep readers up to date on the latest in consumer products. The writers and advertisers both follow a time schedule in order to allow for the actual printing of the paper.

Work on producing a weekly paper never comes to a standstill. Thursday sees the current issue being read by the majority, and in the shop, the same is being torn down to make way for the next issue. Actual "setting type" for the next week starts on Friday. Agricultural content, home economist and the like, are being read, as well as early want ads, advertisements and district news that arrives after. Saturday is much the same, only more of the boxed or display advertising being read. The pace quickens Monday as the district news budget starts to arrive, and at this stage, the size of the edition is established from the amount of copy on hand, plus that expected. The type-set copy is proof read and corrected, with enough ready by Tuesday to start laying out the first four pages. Tuesday sees the linotype kept busy constantly, while another composes the ads and assembles the pages. At this time also, the films are developed and prints made of pictures for the issue, ready to be engraved. Hopefully, or ideally, the first press run of four pages are completed, photos finished and advertisements all done by six o'clock. Otherwise, overtime.

And then comes Wednesday with what seems like fifty million things to do. Last minute arrivals of district news need to be set, plus a couple of late ads, notes and photos for the front page, and the making up of the final four pages. It is necessary to have these pages "on the press" by three o'clock in order to finish, fold and mail, ready for the post office by closing time. Indeed, everyone pitches in to see that the final step is not late, because the end is in sight. It's only occasional weeks, such as last week, when the motor on the folder went haywire, and in the shop, the same is being torn down to make way for the next issue. Actual "setting type" for the next week starts on Friday. Agricultural content, home economist and the like, are being read, as well as early want ads, advertisements and district news that arrives after. Saturday is much

The evening usually sees the paper being re-proof, with all the mistakes and good sticking out like sore thumbs. And so goes another week in the story of your community newspaper. "The Community Press".

CLIP OF THE PRESS

Change of thinking . . .

Alberta Social Credit Party leader Werner Schmidt is going to have his hands full if he plans to get the party back into contention as the strong group it once was.

Jim Henderson's resignation as house leader of the party certainly didn't add to the cause of re-building. And then he left the party to sit as an independent. If it made matters worse, Mr. Henderson has displayed a real fair for politics, and his way of Henderson thinking or of the Schmidt philosophy has not been disclosed, and in all probability this won't come out until it is time to elect another provincial government.

Some of the thoughts that were floating around in between the time Mr. Henderson announced that he was stepping down as party leader in the house, and the time he announced he was leaving the party were most interesting. Everyone pretty well agreed that there was a party split, but none were quite sure of just how serious it was. Ranking Conservatives were maybe wishing that they could add a strong member to their party, but none were quite sure of just how serious it was. Ranking Conservatives were maybe wishing that they could add a strong member to their party, but none were quite sure of just how serious it was.

Perhaps the most important thing in the whole affair is that Jim Henderson, MLA for Wetaskiwin-Leduc constituency has so far come out of the "differences" with a hero's image. No one has taken him to task, publicly at least, for having left the Social Credit ranks. There have been no shouts of "Turncoat" from any quarter and this in the world of politics is quite amazing.

Locally where one might have thought the event would have caused waves the reaction has been one of quiet resignation. Could this be yet another indication, like so many have said, that he was stepping down as party leader in the house, and the time he announced he was

New District Homemaker

After five years as District Home Economist, Camrose Mrs. Jean Hildebrand has resigned effective September 30th, to become a housewife.

The new District Home Economist for this area is Barbara Green, who introduced herself "Working in a new district is always an exciting experience. New faces, new surroundings make each day different and refreshing. I certainly am looking forward to being joined by you all."

I originally came from Yellowknife, a small hamlet northwest of Edmonton. Grade one to eight were spent in a two-room school which presented quite a challenge to any teacher. The next four years I was housed in S. Alberta while I completed Grade 12.

On to University and great adventures! At the University of Alberta I enrolled in the Bachelor of Education program. As most students, I became involved in all sorts of extra-curricular activities which included riding, singing and singing. I managed to survive and graduated in 1971 with a B.Sc. in Household Economics.

During the summer and at the time of graduation I was working for a summer decoration firm in Edmonton. This task included consulting services, painting and wall papering. In the fall of 1971 I joined the staff of the Dept. of Agriculture. For the past two years I worked in the office of the District Home Economist. Two years ago I was transferred to the Social Credit House in the House of Commons. It was an enjoyable two years of growing and learning. Hopefully it won't take too long before I will be able to do it. I'd be interested in any

THE LETTER BOX

Sidewalk, Alberta
October 13, 1973

Community Press,
Sidewalk, Alberta
Each week I am in subscription to the Press for another year.

I have enjoyed reading this paper and especially the Kidzone news. The town has recently grown considerably since I left in 1923, and of course, electricity has changed the whole way of life.

If there was a map of the town, it would really be appreciated. I had hoped to visit there this year, but am planning on a trip to Kildare next summer.

There were letters to the Press in January on February regarding newspapers being delivered "unavailable" for weeks at a time. Our December papers were not delivered until an in January. Just this past week we received them on three consecutive days.

On Thursday, the Sept. 10th arrived and on Friday, the Sept. 11th arrived. This makes one wonder where they are held back along the way.

Thank you for the Press. Yours truly,
Mrs. Mabel Macdonald

A note is a letter who keeps on trying.

Government, Police Forces Cooperate to get Impaired Drivers off Roads

A major province-wide education and enforcement campaign aimed at reducing alcohol-related traffic deaths has been announced by Solicitor General Helen Harkin.

Mr. Harkin outlined a two-pronged campaign, comprising an extensive information phase which begins immediately, and is supported each month by a major crackdown by R.C.M.P. and municipal police forces.

Police will make numerous spot checks, at which police will stop groups of cars at random to examine drivers.

Police will also make random checks, police will be watching 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. and drivers who have had too much to drink, will be stopped and taken to a police station, where they will be held until they are sober.

A recent survey conducted by the province's general of the alcohol problem, is largely unaware of the magnitude of the drinking driver problem, but conducted with it.

"The survey shows that last year, more than 100,000 people were killed and injured by drinking drivers every year," commented Mrs. Harkin. "Our survey was conducted to determine the extent of the problem."

The information phase of the campaign will use advertisements in newspapers and the broadcast media to contribute the awareness of the problem.

Mrs. Harkin said that up to 120 spot checks, to be known as "Black Spots," will be in operation throughout the province. "These people will be stopped to put up with the most dangerous when they are on the road and when they are on the road, they are on the road," she said.

Let's get with it! . . .

(Guest Editorial)
This year the first parent-teacher conference day in Sedgewick is scheduled for this Friday, November 23rd for the junior grades 1 to 5.
These parent-teacher conferences are important because a written report card cannot develop the type and depth of communication between school and home of information pertinent to the successful education of the child. After all, isn't that the prime objective of our educational system?
This is your opportunity as parents to get involved in the educational process of school.

A new slant . . .

A new story from Dayland in this issue outlines a new style of parent involvement and communication with regards to our schools. It has many interesting aspects that could develop into something worthwhile. There are however a number of unknowns that could and will affect the outcome.
On one hand, parents are asked to attend classes of their own meeting in the day and later an open meeting is planned. At this meeting questions on policy example will be asked. If a resolution or an idea of any kind is endorsed by parents, then what? Too often it seems to me the school administration at the local level and county level just don't seem to care what we as parents think.

Is it any wonder there is so much apathy in the citizens of today? But I hope and feel sure, there will be some parent in-put and maybe there may even come an open meeting in the future.
I understand that the old and new situation is important, however I tend to think that the government is so preoccupied with it that other important things are being neglected. For example, we should look into the question of food prices and choose some rationing. Even though rationing is not a new thing, it is one of the things that we need. In many instances it is not beneficial. The government could bring legislation to amend the old and new situation.
